

2cLAST EDITION*2c

• LITTLER CALLS I. C. DEAL "A STEAL"

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 78

Chicago, Friday, December 29, 1916

398

SEX IGNORANCE CALLED MENACE OF POOR BY JUDGE STELK

Boosts Birth Control—Knocks Big Poverty-Stricken Families—Claims Poor Should Be Taught Preventatives—Shocks Ladies in Woman's Club Speech.

Society ladies are talking about it by the thousands today. A perfect roar of gossip was passed around last night. Because she never expected to see it in print, nearly every lady who was present at the Chicago Woman's club yesterday, when Judge John Stelk ripped the lid off this birth control business, made it her business to tell her friends.

Of course, they whispered it. You know this birth control stuff is to be blushed at by ladies; but they whispered it because "no newspaper would ever dare to print the truth" about the talk of the judge, who is also a man.

Stelk laid aside the clammy robes of law yesterday and pitched in as a husky human with six growing kids,